STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 was enacted by the Parliament by repealing the Indian Penal Code to streamline provisions relating to offences and punishments.

Community Service has been introduced for the first time as one of the punishment for minor offences vide Section 4 of this Sanhita. But the same has been specifically provided only for Six minor Offences like non appearance in the case of proclamation, attempt to commit suicide to compel or restraint the exercise of lawful power public servant, misconduct in public by a drunken person, defamation etc. Such an introduction of a new mode of punishment aimed at achieving social Justice as well as a beneficial message to the society is no doubt a welcome initiative.

It is better to extend the punishment of Community Service to more offences having punishment of simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or fine or with both. Therefore Amendments are made to include Community Service also as a punishment in Sections 122,125,126,131,136,168,175 to 177,193,194,205,267,271,273-275,277,278 to 281,285,287 to 293,297,329 and 357. Since the fine amount provided in the offences relating to Sections 274,275,277,278 and 292 is too meager, it is also decided to reasonably enhance the fine amount. Hence, amendments are made vide clause 3 to 34 of the Bill.

Since there is no specific definition to the words “Land Grabbing and Cyber Crimes” in section 111 of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, both the words are proposed to be defined in the explanation to sub-section (1) of Section 111 as clause 2 of the Bill.

Government have considered the amendments proposed by the Kerala Law Reforms Commission in this regard in detail and decided to amend Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 in its application to the State of Kerala .

The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.
